

Kevin is a Yorkshireman, growing up in Sheffield. He is married to Jennifer, who is a GP, and they have a son who is at Holyhead High School.

Kevin will be inducted as the Vicar of Holy Island and licensed as Team Leader of the Bro Cybi Ministry Area by the Bishop of Bangor on Saturday 22 February. Before coming to Holy Island, he was Vicar of St Michael and All Angels, Bartley Green, Birmingham. He has also served in Maryport, on the west coast of Cumbria and in Matson, Gloucester.

Prior to being ordained, Kevin trained to be an academic, specialising in New Testament theology; but has also worked in a newsagents and as a mystery shopper. Kevin is passionate about making the Christian faith connect with all, especially with families and enjoys working with schools and other community groups to make that happen.
