Betty Pritchard : she celebrates 85 years on 25 April !

Easter traditions around the world. Easter is the most important Christian festival. It joyfully celebrates Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead, three days after he was crucified. How is the date of Easter calculated? Christian churches in the West celebrate Easter on the first Sunday following the full moon after the vernal equinox on March 21. It is believed that the word 'Easter' may come from 'Eostare', the Anglo -Saxon goddess of spring, who had festivals held in her honour during April. Easter Sunday comes as a huge celebration at the end of Lent with feasting and treats. Celebratory traditions around the world are fascinating. In Italy, residents of Florence celebrate a 350-year-old tradition called the "explosion of the cart." A centuries-old cart is loaded with fireworks and pulled in front of the Duomo, where spectators watch the pyrotechnics go off. It signifies a sign of peace and a good year ahead. In Poland, the day before Easter, families prepare a "blessing basket." It's filled with coloured eggs, sausages, bread, and other important food and taken to church to be blessed. Apparently Lent isn't over until a priest blesses this basket. Many Latin American countries, and certain regions of Spain, participate in 'The Burning of Judas'. An effigy of Judas, the apostle who betrayed Jesus, is burnt in a central location. Easter in Greece is a very religious time, churches are decorated and religious processions are held. Eggs are painted red to represent the blood of Christ. Traditionally, when people meet they knock their eqgs together and say 'Christ is risen!' Many people also view the cracking of the eggs to be symbolic of Jesus breaking out of his tomb. Many Germans have an 'Easter Fire' where they burn their Christmas tree to show that winter is over and spring is coming. During the nineteenth century, Russia took the decorating of eggs to a whole new level of extravagance. Every Easter, the Tsar Alexander III commissioned Peter Carl Fabergé, the jeweller and goldsmith to the Russian Imperial court, to create an Imperial Easter Egg as a gift for his Empress. It was highly decorated and made out of precious stones and metals such as gold, silver, pearls, rubies and diamonds. In medieval Europe, most people could not read or write, so their Bible stories had to be spoken rather than read. Passion Plays told the Easter Story. One that is still performed, takes place in the German village of Oberammergau. The whole village takes part and the play lasts eight hours! Sometimes the plays are spoken in the medieval language in which they would have been originally performed. In 1633, the residents of Oberammergau, vowed that if God spared them from the bubonic plaque ravaging the region, they would in gratitude, produce a play, every tenth year, thereafter for all time depicting the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Their prayers were answered and in 1634 the first Passion Play took place. The promise has been kept, and the next Passion Play will take place from May 16th to October 4th 2020.

Every time I thought I was being rejected from something good, I was actually being re-directed to something even better!

The British retaliated and the Argentines were defeated on June 15, 1982. On the 6th in 1896, after a break of 1500 years, the first Olympics of the modern era were held in Athens, Greece, On the 10th, in 1998 politicians in Northern Ireland reached an agreement aimed at ending 30 years of violence which had claimed over 3,400 lives. Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland would govern together in a new 108-member Belfast assembly, thus ending 26 years of "direct rule" from London. On the 15th, in 1912, in the icv waters off Newfoundland, the luxury liner Titanic with 2,224 persons on board sank at 2:27 a.m. after striking an iceberg just before midnight. Over 1,500 persons drowned while 700 were rescued, two hours later, by the liner Carpathia. On the 23rd, William Shakespeare (1564 - 1616) was born at Stratford-on-Avon, England. Renowned as the most influential writer in the English language, he created 36 plays and 154 sonnets. He is believed to have died on the same date aged 52 years. Saint George's Day is also celebrated on 23rd April, the traditionally accepted date of the saint's death in AD 303, during the last and most severe persecution of Christians in the Roman Empire.
